The question of kanaka vs. haole is not going find much place in the county elections on Maui this fall, which makes all the funnier the break of Home Ruler Hibio of Labaina, who is running between the hours of 8 o'clock A. M. for supervisor. In a recent backwoods political speech, in which all and 5 o'clock P. M., in each County of his audience were Hawaiians, he let his mouth loose in an impassioned appeal, urging his hearers to scratch every haole and vote the County of Kalawao including kanaka straight. On the platform behind the speaker sat two haole Kalaupapa, Kalawao and Waikolu home rule candidates, Cornwell for supervisor and Crook for au- on the Island of Molokai. ditor. Just what his co-candidates thought of Hibio's scheme may be guessed. It is such demagogues as Hibio who should be elected to stay at home this fall, because any man, either hade or Hawaiian Island of Oahu and all other Islands running from the north corner or who draws the color line on Mani thus fall, proves himself unfit to of the Territory not included in any Holualoa to the south corner of represent either as an official of Maui County.

It is about time that prohibitive rates were being done away with, in the matter of fire insurance in Wailuku, There is no town in three nautical miles of the shores auywhere with a better system of water works than Wailuku, with thereof, but not including that part Kau to Honaunau, the north boundthe added advant ge of one hundred and fifty feet of pressure of the Island of Molokai known as ary of Honaunau and the sea. even in the higher portions of the town. All that we need is a number of fire hydrants on the main corners and along the main streets. It was owing shipply to a stupid blunder that fire hydrants were not put in at the time the water pipe was laid. These hydrants should be put in at once, and a couple of hose carts provided, with sufficient hose: Add to this a chemical engine, as is proposed, and Wailuku would be as well protected from destructive fires as any town could be. This being true, it is to be hoped that these safeguards will be provided at as early a date as possible, and that a corresponding reduction be made in fire insurance rates,

If the NEWS were in any need of a specially long eared and stupid band of jackasses, it would send to Honolulu and corral the other Islands within three nautical jury which made a kick at the Advertiser. The Advertiser put its finger on a sore spot in our jury system, so it is no wonder that there was an unusual amount of kicking and braying. It was notorious under the old color line system of selecting juries, that Hawaiian juries could safely be depended upon to acquit Hawaiians, or at least this was notably and observably true on Maui. Under the present jury system this abuse has disappeared, and the jury the Fifth Representative District at the present term in Wailuku can safely be depended upon to and three from the County at large: try cases fairly. In the case in point in Honolulu, there was no charge against the personnel of the jury which was to try Kamuela, officio; and the jurymen who made the kicks were simply "false alarms" who fell to kicking before they were spurred.

One of the teachers who was sent to the Philippines, and a prominent educator by the way, raises the point that it is a waste of time to teach the Filipino children the English language which Collector ex officio; they never need or will use, and that they should be taught in the Spanish language, which is their mother tongue. He also makes the further point that the attempt of the American teachers to learn and speak the Spanish language in the Philippines is a further cause of disgust to the Filipino children who know and appreciate classic Spanish. At first the point might seem to be well taken, but after all it is a narrow pedagogical view of the question. The main thing is to Americanize the Filipinos and it can be done no other way than by teaching them our language. Of course it will prove a difficult task at first, but it should be done.

Two important events have just happened on the Island of Hawaii, the first being a meeting of the agricultural society and the second being the volcanic eruption. Hasty readers are apt to attach more importance to the last mentioned event, but as a matter of fact that is an insignificant matter when compared with the lasting benefits to be derived from pushing minor industries on the big island. The scope of discussion at the meeting of the Agricultural Society indicates that Hawaii is on the eve of big development of little industries, and the other islands should watch and imitate their example.

Judging from the latest telegraphic reports it is now strictly up to Japan to decide whether or not there is to be a war between Japan and Russia, and Japan also begins to understand what a broken reed the Anglo-Japanese treaty would be to lean on in case of trouble. The result is that Japan finds herself in a pathetically ridiculous hole, and must scramble out the best she can, because it must now be obviously plain to Japan that war between herself and Russia single-handed will simply prove a national hari-kari.

On Maui at least, and possibly on the other islands in like degree, it has become apparent that the neglect to order a new registry this fall will be the cause of the loss of a large number of republican votes, caused by the shifting about and removal of a large number of men who voted the republican ticket two years ago, and who would do so again, if here, while many new comers are not on the register.

It is only fair that the republicans, who passed the County OFFICE in the HAWAHAN ISLANDS. Filled throughout with the latest bill, should have the first chance to put it into working order in Appliances known to Science. Mam County. The home rulers may mean well enough, but it would prove an egregious burnder on Maui to elect the straight home rule ticket this fall.
